Staffers Invade Showboat

Play your cards right—order a Bellevinois.

Ring out the Bell-evinois!

Please don't take away our Bellevinois.

Keep a clean slate—order a Bellevinois.

The Editor Reflects . . .

Although we staffers take pride in planning and producing the 1964 Bellevinois, the task would be impossible without the help of certain professionals. Our sincere thanks goes to:

Miss Jane Hansleben, faculty adviser, alias Flawrence of Arabia
Mr. Norman Semmelroth of Record Printing Company
Mr. Harry Swain of Central Engraving Company
The Spieths of Spieth Studio for their concentration, animation, participation, association, and cooperation.

To work on the Bellevinois is a privilege and a rewarding experience. It is also a tremendous responsibility when twenty-four seniors are called upon to represent the interests of 3750 individuals. Among their many experiences throughout the year, staffers might recall:

the word Bellevinois printed in the fifth space on a schedule card first day jitters
announcement of positions a champagne-colored staff room its conversation pieces. . .guitar, deer's head, electric iron, mobile, letterless typewriter heated discussions on the theme of the yearbook program, popcorn, and candy apple sales at home football games a spectator saying, "I'd like six popcorns," and you with only five bags left changing a $5 bill for a dime program—and smiling confetti-covered candy apples available only after the first touchdown sore feet from pounding the streets of Belleville for ads and business patrons some all contracts; many refusals a livelier advertising section The first snapped picture selection and design of the maroon and gold cover co-ordination of opening, academic, activities, and sports committees a keener awareness of Belleville Township High School staffers' first writing assignments a prologue both meaningful and appropriate gleaning an education from departmental interviews constructive criticism, helpful suggestion, honest praise, and valued encouragement from our adviser the big black book darkroom developments!
mounds of blue sheets, layouts, copy, headlines, pictures, and captions galleys and proofsheets from the printer hours with the engraver and his lemon-flavored stickers scissors, picture proofs, and paste candy-peddling photographers seniors filed under "C" lost identifications catching the faculty off guard car keys that unlock darkrooms keeping track of our skip-minded staffer an April fool on Flawrence sports editor's stocking feet SOS's to the photographers handball skills and "toss the rubber ball into the pigeon hole" a trail of everlasting white footprints publicity cruise on board the "Goldenrod" "Promise her anything but give her a Bellevinois" painting, erecting, taking orders aboard our own Bellevinois "Showboat" pages of photography assignments smuggled lemonade, pretzels, potato chips hits and misses at our waste basket target co-sponsorship of the Donkey Basketball game hard work, but great fun deadlines, deadlines, more deadlines anticipation of the finished product hope that we have captured and reproduced accurately the spirit and flavor of the 1963-64 year at BTHS and have woven with colors all our own a memorable pattern in keeping with our community's 150 year heritage.

Jackie Haskins
